

By Charles Nordstrom

BEARTREK

British biologist Chris Morgan is partnering with Touratech to help document threatened bear populations across the world. Morgan's adventure motorcycle expedition (completed on a Touratech TT-39-equipped BMW F650GS) is featured in an upcoming feature-length film called BEARTREK. The film chronicles Morgan's motorcycle adventure across four continents to learn about and conserve the rarest bears on Earth. These efforts are part of a broader campaign to raise awareness and funds for innovative conservation projects, including those featured in BEARTREK. wildlifemedia.org, 360-734-6060

Ladies on the Loose DVD by Lois Price $25

Lois Price is back with a new DVD. Ladies on the Loose is a guide to worldwide motorcycle travel from a female perspective. It features an impressive cast of riders, including Dakar racer Patsy Quick, Elspeth Beard, the first British woman to ride around the world, and of course Lois herself, veteran of two double-transcontinental journeys.

The DVD covers everything you need to set off on your own adventure: off-tarmac riding skills, different types of terrain, maintenance, packing advice, and bike selection. horizonsunlimited.com

Rugged Guide to 4x4 Adventure Touring £23

The Rugged Guide to 4x4 Adventure Touring is a comprehensive video introduction to the world of overlanding. Over the last three years, Rugged Guide has been documenting vehicle preparation, driver training, equipment testing, and destination scouting to help inspire and educate beginning overlanders. This 3 1/2-hour, three-DVD set also features overlanding adventures throughout Europe and north Africa. ruggedguide.com